

the tools and the chance."

—Jacqueline Woodson, National Book Award winner

BERGEN COUNTY EDUCATION ASSOCIATION

HUMAN RELATIONS/MINORITY INVOLVEMENT COMMITTEE

Guest Speaker: Frederick Joseph

Author, philanthropist, humanitarian, and racial justice activist.

From the perspective of a friend, Frederick Joseph offers candid recollections of his own experiences with racism.

Joseph's anecdotal presentation invites participants to engage in meaningful self-reflection and courageous conversation.

Tuesday, February 1st: 4:30pm – 5:30pm

Registration Link:

<https://njea.zoom.us/meeting/register/tJ0ocO2hqTwiH9I44amRxF6oW0mml7VoWotr>.

Or contact Sue Simon at: ssimon@bcea-njea.org.

To learn more about Frederick Joseph, please feel free to click the link below:

<https://www.nytimes.com/2020/12/17/books/review/frederick-joseph-the-black-friend.html>